

OFFICE FOR PRESIDENT

and had nothing to gain from Cox's victory because he would naturally be the nominee for a second term, whereas, in the event of a Harding victory, there would be an open contest for the Democratic nomination in 1924. Nevertheless, the plan was abandoned and was never referred to again during the campaign.

As for Senator Harding, the question of a second term enters into many a discussion of the politics of the next administration. Nobody is attributing to the president-elect a desire for a second term, for anybody who knows Warren Harding well would never characterize him as an ambitious man. He is much more concerned with making good in the term for which he has been elected and letting the future take care of itself.

Politicians Busy.

Nevertheless, the politicians who think they are going to have a good deal to say about the next administration are already laying lines for the retention of control after the first term shall have been ended. One man who is close to Senator Harding said he felt sure there would be a Harding organization and that it would be folly to ignore political tradition or opportunity by taking any other course after the Republican party had been cooling its heels outside the White house after eight long years. Delegates to national conventions as a rule are either federal office holders or former federal office holders. The nomination of William Howard Taft in 1908 was accomplished because the federal office holders under President Roosevelt were advised to choose Taft. The re-nomination of Mr. Taft in 1912 was possible because the federal office holders and the existing Republican organization were dominant in the regular convention. President Wilson had no difficulty getting a re-nomination in 1916, and if he had said the word he could have selected the Democratic nominee this year. The McAdoo and Palmer forces, constituting two-thirds of the Democratic delegates, were largely federal office holders or their friends.

Problem for Harding.

Warren Harding can easily get a re-nomination in 1924 if he makes even a fair record in the presidency, as the office-holding machinery is all-powerful at a national convention. Senator Hiram Johnson intends to put a stop to this influence in national politics. But it would not be surprising to find Senator Harding himself eliminating the personal issue from consideration by making a single-term pledge similar to that which Governor Lowden of Illinois gave to Republican leaders at Chicago. There are those who think Senator Harding would get along much better with Hiram Johnson and have much less trouble if the question of a single term for the presidency were disposed of so that the California senator would feel that he had an equal opportunity to win the nomination in 1924. This is one phase of cabinet making and organization planning which Mr. Harding will find it necessary to settle when he gets back to Marion.

VIOLAN IS NAMED SECRETARY OF NEW GALESBURG HOUSE

(Special Correspondence.) Viola, Nov. 27.—B. L. Christy, for a number of years one of Viola's leading business men as a dealer in grain, has been named secretary of the new Galesburg Molasses Feed company. Mr. Christy has purchased the property having long been known as the Bridge home, and will make his residence there.

ORCHESTRA TO ENTERTAIN.

(Special Correspondence.) Reynolds, Ill., Nov. 27.—The Festival orchestra will render a program Tuesday evening at the M. E. church as the second number of the Reynolds lyceum course.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
